TourHuntsville.com Announces New Custom Tour Viewer

New viewer more professional and consistent

Huntsville, AL, June 1, 2007 – TourHuntsville, LLC announced today that a new fully customizable Virtual Tour viewer has been developed and released for use beginning immediately. "This new viewer provides our customers and end users a more consistent, professional look and feel, while still being 100% customizable", stated Cindy Ledbetter of TourHuntsville, LLC. "This is just one example of how we are always looking out for our customers so that they look the best they possible can", added Ms. Ledbetter.

TourHuntsville, LLC Backgrounder

TourHuntsville.com was developed in 2006 in an effort to provide true 360° imaging technology to the Huntsville market. In early 2007, TourHuntsville, LLC was formed to provide this same imaging technology to the Real Estate industry. To date, TourHuntsville, LLC is the only local company providing 360° Virtual Tour development that requires no work on the customer's part. Virtual Tours are posted on the company's website, TourHuntsville.com, as well as on the agent's site and the MLS system.
